The Burnden Park treatment room is getting back to something like normal after resembling a hospital sick quarters for the past week or so.

On top of the wrist injuries to Steve Elliott and Mark Came and Asa's hamstring pull sustained at Coventry, physiotherapist Peter Nightingale has been kept busy trying to minimise the flu symptoms which hit us hard. At one stage we thought we would get away reasonably lightly and had, in fact, completed our plans for the game at Darlington last Saturday when, overnight, several more players succumbed to the virus. At that stage we had no alternative but to apply to the Football League for the game to be postponed.

Tuesday nights team against Burnley contained a number of players who were not 100 per cent fit after the flu but they battled well to get the result. I was particularly pleased with Paul Allen, another of Steve Carroll's promising Central League youngsters, who made his home debut and capped it with a goal. It's always a great feeling to make one's senior debut in front of your own supporters, but to crown it with a goal makes it doubly good.

This afternoon it's back to the serious business of picking up League points and improving our position in the table. Bournemouth beat us early on at Dean Court helped by a penalty which, at the time, I thought was dubious to say the least. I've looked at the video of that game again this week and my view hasn't changed.

However, that's all in the past and it's three points this afternoon we want to redress the balance. Our record this season against the top clubs in the Division is excellent and the fact that Bournemouth are second in the table will hold no fears for us. It's how we perform that will determine the result because at our best we can match anyone.

SYNDICATE SCOOPS LIFELINE

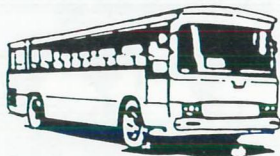

A delighted Jim Veevers toasts the win with a glass of bubbly.

It was champagne all the way for Wanderers' fan Jim Veevers after he scooped the £25,000 top Lifeline prize on behalf of a membership syndicate based at Greater Manchester buses depot in Crook Street, Bolton.

Jim was on stage at the Pembroke Halls last Saturday night representing his pals and workmates Reg Hattersley, Andy Hughes and Geoff Morrison who make up the four-man syndicate. And he could hardly contain his delight as he heard their number announced as the star prize winner.

"We've held our number for 18 months and I felt like doing somersaults across the stage when I heard it called out," said Jim.

His wife Joyce and daughter Carol will benefit from Jim's share of the cash and he's thinking of treating himself to a new Ford Escort. But one thing he won't be giving up is that Lifeline number which he hopes will bring more rewards in the coming year.

BOURNEMOUTH FOR DIV 2 AT LAST?

By Tony Pullein

It's really beginning to look as if Bournemouth have the capabilities to win promotion to the Second Division for the first time in their history. Since the club's election to the Football League in 1923, supporters have been looking forward to the day when they would see the Cherries in action in Division Two. Though they have made a few notable bids to achieve that, they have never quite made it. And, because of that, no one at Dean Court is starting to count any chickens.

The Cherries moved into second place in the table following their sound 3-0 home win over promotion rivals Notts County last Saturday. It was their sixth League match without defeat, following a most worrying spell when it seemed they might have blown their chances.

By the end of November, Bournemouth were nicely poised to keep up with the leaders and had a 100 per cent home record. But December brought a string of disasters. They were beaten at home by Fourth Division Orient (0-1) — who had not won away from home in the League! — in the F.A. Cup.

In the League, their 100 per cent home record went when they lost to close rivals Gillingham (0-2) and they then went down at Rotherham. Next came a 3-4 defeat away to Fourth Division strugglers Wolves in the Freight-Rover trophy.

Manager Harry Redknapp felt action was needed to improve the defence. He sold midfielder Robbie Savage to Bradford City for £35,000 and used most of the money to sign centre-back John Williams from Port Vale.

Williams' arrival, plus a close analytical look at tactics, halted the slide. Since that disaster at Wolves, Bournemouth were unbeaten in seven League and Cup games prior to their mid-week F.R. tie at Swindon. Now they are playing with all their old confidence.

Injuries created another problem, particularly when both main strikers David Puckett and Trevor Aylott were out of action together. Just over a week ago, Mr

Redknapp went into the market again to sign England under-21 forward Richard Cooke from Spurs. He celebrated his debut with a goal against Notts County last Saturday.

Cooke was the eighth new player to be drafted into the Bournemouth side this season. During the summer Mr Redknapp signed goalkeeper Gerry Peyton (from Fulham), defenders Mark Whitlock (Southampton) and Tony Pulis (Newport) plus forwards David Puckett (Southampton), Trevor Aylott (Crystal Palace) and Carl Richards (Enfield). And John Williams arrived from Port Vale in December.

With so many new players in the side, it is perhaps surprising that Bournemouth have knitted so well as a team. Like all things, luck has probably played its part but the result is that the Cherries now have a collection of skilful players combining very well together as a team.

Still, most of their success has been achieved at Dean Court. They have won more home League games (11) than any other club in the Third Division but they have so far managed only three away League victories — at Darlington (3-0), Bury (1-0) and Bristol Rovers (3-0).

They drew at Brentford (1-1), Notts County (1-1), Mansfield (1-1) and Chesterfield (1-1) but were beaten at York (0-2), Middlesbrough (0-4), Walsall (0-2), and Rotherham (2-4).

With promotion their major objective, there was not too much concern about their early exits from both major Cup competitions. They were surprisingly beaten at home by Bristol City (0-1) in the first round of the Littlewoods Cup and, as they were held to 1-1 in the return at Ashton Gate, they went out on aggregate.

In the F.A. Cup they started with a 7-2 home win over Fareham Town but then came that second round disaster against Orient.

But they were still in the Freight-Rover Trophy this week. In spite of their upset at Wolves, they scored a 1-0 home win over Cardiff in the qualifying group to take them through to the knockout stage and they were due to travel to Swindon in the first round this week.

HARRY REDKNAPP (Manager). Harry took over as Bournemouth's manager in October 1983, following a spell as club coach, and this year he hopes to lead the club into the Second Division for the first time in its history. As a young professional with West Ham, he won England youth honours and he went on to play well over 150 games for the Hammers, mostly on the wing. He was transferred to Bournemouth for £32,000 in 1972 and spent just over two years as a first-teamer at Dean Court. Injuries then started to trouble him and, as he started to fight for a come-back, he spent a loan spell with Norwich in 1974/75. In 1976 he was transferred to Brentford but, after only one first-team game, he was forced to retire. He joined Seattle as coach and later returned to Bournemouth in a similar capacity. In 1982/83, when the club was struck by injuries, he returned to play a couple of first-team games for the Cherries.

GERRY PEYTON (Goalkeeper). Gerry, who was signed from Fulham last summer, has played for the Republic of Ireland on 22 occasions. He first played League football with Burnley in 1975 but he moved on to Fulham a year later and went on to play 350 senior games for the Cottagers. When he briefly lost his place in 1983/84 he played for Southend on loan.

TOM HEFFERNAN (Defender). Tom is in his second spell with Bournemouth. Once a reserve player with Tottenham, he initially went to Dean Court in 1979 and soon established himself in the first-team. In 1983 he was transferred to Sheffield United for £30,000 but he returned to Bournemouth on a free transfer two years later.

JOHN WILLIAMS (Defender). John was signed from Port Vale for £30,000 in December and has slotted into the middle of the defence. He started his career with Tranmere Rovers and made more than 150 League appearances before moving on to Port Vale in 1985.

MARK WHITLOCK (Defender). Mark was signed from Southampton last summer. He made his League debut for the Saints in 1981/82 and over the years enjoyed several runs in their First Division side. During his early days, he was loaned to Grimsby and Aldershot to gain League experience.

PAUL MORRELL (Defender). Paul can play in midfield or defence but seems now to have settled at left-back. He was signed from Weymouth in 1983 and went straight into the first-team.

TONY PULIS (Defender/Forward). Tony, signed from Newport County last summer, has recently been played in attack. He started his League career with Bristol Rovers in 1975/76 and made almost 100 senior appearances before joining Hong Kong club Happy Valley in 1981. He returned to Bristol Rovers a year later and moved on to Newport in 1984.

SEAN O'DRISCOLL (Midfield). Fulham signed Sean from Alvechurch and he made his League debut for the Cottagers during 1979/80. For the following three seasons he was a fixture in the Fulham side and he played for the Republic of Ireland on three occasions. Bournemouth signed him in 1984.

MARK NEWSON (Midfield). Mark was signed from Maidstone United in 1985 and was ever-present last season, when he scored six goals. He has netted four times this term.

MARK O'CONNOR (Midfield). Mark joined the Cherries from Bristol Rovers towards the end of last season. Originally with Q.P.R., he made his League debut in 1981 but got only occasional outings in the Rangers' senior side. He spent the whole of the 1983/84 season on loan to Exeter City and then joined Bristol Rovers at the end of it.

GARY HOWLETT (Midfield). Gary won Republic of Ireland youth honours in his early days with Home Farm, in Dublin. After trials with Manchester United and Liverpool, he eventually turned professional with Coventry but did not get a chance in their League eleven. Brighton signed him in 1982 and the following year he played for the Seagulls in the F.A. Cup final against Manchester United. Bournemouth signed him two seasons ago.

MORGAN LEWIS (Midfield). Morgan is a local lad who first got his chance in the first-team two seasons ago. He is not yet a regular but has been in the side quite often in recent weeks.

RICHARD COOKE (Forward). Richard was signed from Tottenham for £30,000 and scored on his Bournemouth debut against Notts County last Saturday. A former England youth international, he made his First Division debut for Spurs during 1983/84 and, though he never won a regular place at White Hart Lane, he had the distinction of playing for the England under-21 side last season.

DAVID PUCKETT (Forward). Though he has been out with an injury for several weeks, David is one of the Third Division's leading scorers with 16 goals in all matches. He began his career as a junior with Southampton, made his League debut in 1981 and went on to make 100 first-team appearances for the Saints prior to his transfer to Bournemouth last summer.

TREVOR AYLOTT (Forward). Trevor returned after injury to score against Notts County last Saturday. His first club was Chelsea and he made a couple of dozen League appearances for them until joining Barnsley for £50,000 in 1980. Millwall invested £150,000 when they signed him in 1982 but, after a few months, he moved on to Luton. He was transferred to Crystal Palace in 1984 and, after a loan spell back at Barnsley last season, he signed for the Cherries last summer.

CARL RICHARDS (Forward). Carl was signed from Enfield for £10,000 last summer and has already made such a big impression that several First Division clubs have shown an interest in him. He is currently Bournemouth's second-highest scorer with eight goals.

COMMUNITY SCHEME SPREADS ITS WINGS

This group of retired peoples from Brambles Residential Home were among 60 pensioners who took part in two days of activity in the Burnden Executive Club.

Organised as part of the successful Football in the Community scheme, the programme consisted of bingo sessions, darts, dominoes and old time music.

Kevin Glendon, organiser of the Community Scheme at Burnden Park, paid tribute to the support given by Executive Club manager Nat Loft-house, who provided the room and refreshments, and George, the steward at Little Lever Conservative Club who loaned all the bingo equipment.

OLD PLAYER DIES

Ernie Forrest, remembered by many older Wanderers supporters, died last week at the age of 67. Ernie's Wanderers career was cut short due to the war and was one of the fifteen of the club's players to join the Territorial Army.

He made his debut in a 2-0 home defeat by Chelsea in September 1939 and played his last game for the Wanderers almost nine years later in May 1948, having made 69 League appearances, before joining Grimsby Town.

His only League goal for the Wanderers came in the first League game after the War when Chelsea ran out 4-3 winners at Stamford Bridge with Nat Lofthouse grabbing the other Bolton goals.

THE PRICE OF FAME

Georgie Fame, the Leigh-born musician whose unique approach to jazz, blues and pop music has brought him international acclaim, is bringing his Blue Flames to the Burnden Executive Suite on Wednesday, February 11th.

Tickets for this very special night are strictly limited — unlike his concert with Count Basie at the Royal Albert Hall which brought a standing ovation from 7,000 people.

To reserve your tickets at £5 each, telephone 0204 389200 or call at the Commercial Office after the game or during office hours.

Flashback

PAST ENCOUNTERS

We welcome Bournemouth to Burnden Park today for what will be the 12th Football League meeting between the sides, which have all taken place in the Third Division.

The first League game between the clubs was at Burnden in August 1971 and produced the only scoreless result to date, in what was, the Wanderers first ever Third Division game. The Wanderers registered their only League win to date at Dean Court the following March by 2-1. Roger Hunt grabbed both Bolton goals, whilst Ted MacDougall scored his 40th goal of the season, with the last touch of the game.

Both clubs won their respective home game in 1972/73 and our path's didn't cross again for 11 years.

In November 1983 the Wanderers came back from two goals down to take a point at Dean Court. Trevor Morgan scored both Bournemouth's goals with Jeff Chandler and Steve Thompson doing likewise for Bolton. The following April, Bournemouth recorded their only win at Burnden, a Billy Rafferty goal nine minutes from time separating the sides.

Season 1984/85 saw each club win their respective home game, Bournemouth's 4-0 win in March 1985 at Dean Court, being the largest winning margin in all the past encounter's whilst last season each side again took maximum points at home.

Earlier this season Bolton went down 2-1 on the South Coast. Tony Caldwell had given the Wanderers a first-half lead although they had been reduced to 10 men. In the 75th minute the home side were awarded a controversial penalty for an innocent challenge by Dave Sutton. Bobby Savage converted the kick and five minutes from time Phil Morrell shot the winner.

Our League record against Bournemouth is as follows:

	PL	W	D	L	F	A
HOME	5	3	1	1	6	2
AWAY	6	1	1	4	6	13
TOTAL	11	4	2	5	12	15

15 YEARS AGO

22nd January 1972. The Wanderers ended a run of 10 League games without a win by defeating Halifax Town 1-0 at The Shay. The winner came in the 49th minute from Roger Hunt whose snap shot went underneath former Wanderers 'keeper Alex Smith.

A bid for Charlton's Ray Treacy by the Wanderers was turned down by the London club and in the same week 17-year-old 'keeper Barry Siddall turned professional.

29th January 1972. Two months without a home League win was ended when Plymouth were beaten 2-1 at Burnden. Derek Rickard gave Argyle the lead in only the fourth minute and it wasn't until eight minutes from time that Roy Greaves equalised. Ian Seddon grabbed the winner for the Wanderers in the second minute of injury time.

10 YEARS AGO

22nd January 1977. Bolton defeated Blackburn Rovers 3-1 at Burnden before a crowd of 28,528 to edge nearer Chelsea at the top of the Second Division. In what was a televised derby clash, Neil Whatmore put Bolton in front in the 48th minute, before Peter Reid increased the lead 10 minutes later. John Waddington pulled a goal back in the 73rd minute but Neil Whatmore hit his 17th goal of the season four minutes later to make the game safe.

28th January 1977. The Wanderers made a Friday evening friendly trip to Huddersfield Town which finished 2-2. Garry Jones and Roy Greaves had given Bolton a comfortable lead but two goals in the last five minutes, one from a penalty, by Kevin Johnson gave the home side a draw.

5 YEARS AGO

30th January 1982. Mike Doyle made a tragic debut for the Wanderers having been signed from Stoke City earlier in the week. In the 18th minute he attempted a volleyed back pass that ended up in his own net. The Wanderers fought back and equalised in the 65th minute with a spectacular diving header from Chris Thompson.

3rd February 1982. Mike Doyle's personal disaster continued when he was sent off in his second game for the Wanderers, a 2-0 defeat at Newcastle United. Doyle was given his marching orders in the 12th minute after an incident with Imre Varadi. Two minutes earlier John Trewick had given the home side the lead from the penalty spot. It wasn't until eight minutes from time that United scored their second which came from Kenny Wharton.

Wanderers IN A

ON THE SPOT FINAL

Our supporters' competition reaches its final stage this afternoon after several weeks of exciting and entertaining activity.

Through to the Final are Geoff Ainsworth representing the Burnden Terrace and Clint Jolley representing the Manchester Road South.

This afternoon the two will compete before the game with a series of penalty kicks while at half-time they will perform the popular skills section of the competition and answer questions about the Wanderers and the Club history.

And waiting for the winner will be some exciting prizes which will be announced from the pitch this afternoon.

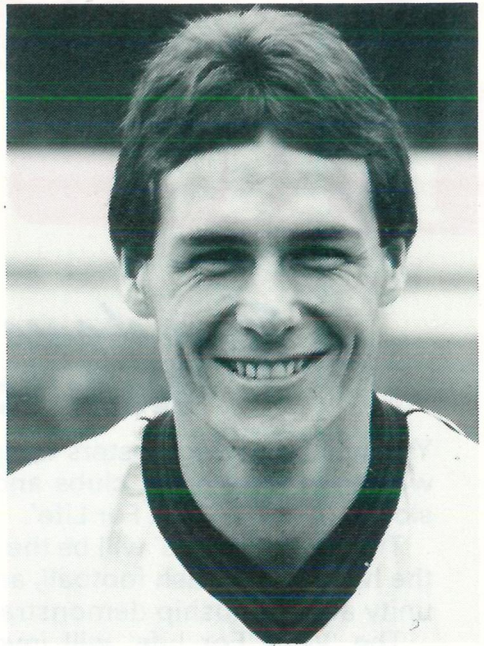

IN THE MEANTIME KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK THIS AFTERNOON BY KEEPING THE LANGUAGE CLEAN.

The goal that many of the spectators did not see... TONY CALDWELL slides in to knock the ball past Burnley goalkeeper TONY WOODWORTH.

LOUT IS
THANKS TO YOU says STEVE ELLIOTT

If ever confirmation was needed that your efforts to clean up Burnden Park are working, I got them last week during a visit to a young fan in Horwich.

Andrew Butler had been blinded by a coin thrown during the match against Swindon at the start of the season. He still attends our games, I'm glad to say, and I was delighted to hear him say that since the Club launched 'Out With The Lout' the amount of trouble at Burnden is now almost nil.

Let's keep it that way. You are playing your part to the full and all the players thank you for your efforts.

Your chance to join the 'Walk For Life'

You will be seeing posters appearing around the ground as well as in local pubs, clubs and places of work bearing the slogan 'Do The Walk For Life'.

The 'Walk For Life' will be the largest soccer peace event in the history of British football, and aims to repeat the scale of unity and friendship demonstrated in Sport Aid.

The 'Walk For Life' will involve all football clubs, their players, supporters, families and anyone interested in restoring football's image and raising money to fight cancer. It will involve thousands of individually sponsored football fans and their families walkings side by side from one football ground to another on Sunday 26th July 1987. There will also be a range of activities at the ground including pop concerts, charity matches and club open days.

'Walk For Life' is being backed by the F.A., the P.F.A., 'TODAY', and a growing list of personalities such as Ian Botham, John Conteh, Dennis Waterman and Suzanne Dando.

It is the aim of these people and everyone connected with the 'Walk For Life' to:

- Improve the image of football and its supporters.

- Raise as much money as possible for cancer related charities.

- Show unity amongst rival supporters.

- Encourage friendship in communities in their united fight against cancer.

We think that these aims are worthwhile. We hope that you will to.

Please..... do the 'Walk For Life'.

Dear Postie

I am a loyal Wanderers supporter who comes to most home and some away games. Since the alterations in public transport I have found it extremely difficult to get to and from the match.

Therefore, if any Wanderers fan in the Glossop or Ashton under Lyne area could give me a lift to the games I would be most grateful.

I would be willing to contribute towards the cost of petrol.

PROFILE

Height 5'10". Weight 11st. 5lbs.

A young man hoping to follow in the footsteps of Nat Lofthouse is 17 years old reserve team striker Paul Griffin.

Like Nat, a Bolton-born lad, Paul attended Mount St Joseph school and represented the town team as well as appearing for Greater Manchester Schools and the Lancashire County team.

Now in his second year at Burnden Park, Paul is the joint leading scorer in the Central League side along with George Oghani and made his first team debut earlier this season at Burnley in the Freight Rover Trophy.

Paul lives in the town with his parents and sister Alison and likes to relax after training listening to music, particularly his favourite groups The Smiths and Spear of Destiny.
